

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS: IASPM-ANZ PUBLICATION PRIZE

The Executive of the International Association for the Study of Popular Music Australia-New Zealand branch is calling for applications for the annual IASPM-ANZ Publication Prize.

Purpose: The Prize has been established to recognise and encourage outstanding research by IASPM-ANZ members on topics relating to the Australia / New Zealand region.

Eligibility: You must be a current IASPM-ANZ member. Only one submission per member. Submissions must be peer-reviewed academic texts (monograph, journal article or book chapter) with a publication date within the range 1 January – 31 December 2010. Submissions should focus on subject matter(s) relating to popular music in the Australia / New Zealand region. Incumbent IASPM-ANZ Executive members are ineligible.

Prize: The successful applicant will be announced at the 2011 IASPM-ANZ annual general meeting, and will receive a prize of $500AUD.

Application Process: Complete the application form (available on the IASPM-ANZ website), and supply one high quality PDF of your publication. Please ensure there is clear evidence of the publication date.

Application Deadline: Friday 23 September, 2011.

Send Application To: the Secretary, Kate Barney (secretary@iaspm.org.au) with the subject heading "IASPM-ANZ 2011 Publication Prize".

Please contact the Chair, Shelley Brunt (chair@iaspm.org.au) if you have any further questions.